Terms and Agreements

1. No Place Like Home, (NPLH), will provide the pet owner with a daily report while they are away via text, email or written note. Owner may decline daily report.
2. In case of emergency, NPLH will attempt to contact you and your veterinarian. If we are unable to reach your veterinarian your pet will be taken to the nearest emergency clinic. The pet owner is responsible for any veterinarian bills due to medical emergencies.
3. NPLH will keep all information confidential and store keys securely in our safe.
4. NPLH will ensure that any door or gates used are secure after each visit. NPLH is not responsible for any damages from burglary or theft.
5. Pet owner(s) is responsible for injury to any representative of NPLH due to pet attacks (biting, scratching, etc) or unsafe conditions on the premises.
6. Should the pet become violent or uncontrollable, the owner or emergency contact will be notified. NPLH reserves the right to discontinue service after notification and the pet owner is responsible for finding another service. The pet owner will be given a refund for any services not completed.
7. NPLH is not responsible for any damage done by the pet(s). NPLH will clean up after the pet(s) should any accident occur. Any accidents will be noted on the daily report.
8. NPLH is not liable for the accidental death or death due to natural causes of your pet(s) during or after the time of services contracted, including the death of a pet while under the care of a veterinarian.
